Elyse Fitzpatrick has been counseling women since 1989 and is presently a part-time counselor (along with her husband, Phil) at Grace Church in San Diego. Grace Church is part of the Sovereign Grace Ministries family of churches.

She holds a certificate in Biblical Counseling from CCEF (San Diego) and an M.A. in Biblical Counseling from Trinity Theological Seminary, and is a member of the National Association of Nouthetic Counseling.

A frequent speaker at women's conferences, she has been married for over thirty years and has three adult children and six really adorable grandchildren.

Elyse is the author of twelve books, including:

"Women Helping Women";

"Love to Eat, Hate to Eat";

"Overcoming Fear, Worry and Anxiety";

"When Good Kids Make Bad Choices" (each from Harves House Publishers);

"Idols of the Heart";

"The Afternoon of Life";

"A Steadfast Heart" (from P&$ Publishers);

"Helper By Design";

"Will Medicine Stop the Pain?" (from Moody Publishers); and

"Uncommon Vessels" (from Timeless Texts).

Her latest title, "Because He Loves Me: How Christ Transforms Our Daily Life," is available from Crossway Book.
